

Presenting your Research

Refer to the grading rubric as you prepare the poster or PowerPoint Presentation to ensure that you earn full credit. Use this page to organize your oral presentation.

I. Introduction

- A. What is your career?
 - 1. Why are you dressed appropriately?
 - 2. Why did you choose this career?
 - 3. What state are you working in?
- B. What do you earn?
 - 1. What is your estimated annual income?
 - 2. What are your taxes?
 - 3. What is your estimated monthly income?

II. Research

- A. Where are you living?
 - 1. What is your address?
 - 2. How much do you pay in rent?
 - 3. Is there anything interesting about your place?
- B. What are you driving?
 - 1. What vehicle did you purchase?
 - 2. How much are your monthly payments?
 - 3. How much is your car insurance?

III. Budget

- A. Display spreadsheet
 - 1. Review list
 - 2. Explain important expenses
 - 3. Explain unique expenses
- B. Display pie chart
 - 1. Identify biggest expenses
 - 2. Discuss percentages

IV. Conclusion

- A. The end
 - 1. Are you excited to pursue this career?
 - 2. Have you changed your mind about any research you've done?
- B. Questions from your audience...